CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 25TH OCTOBER, 2007

P.C.;

1. Aggreived by the change of symbol at an election, the present petition has been filed. All stages in the election process are over and actual voting is scheduled to be held on 28-10-2007. The greivance only pertains to change of symbol. I do not find it feasible to dispose of this writ petition after hearing of the parties without disturbing the process of election. Hence I decline to interfere with the impugned order. Writ Petition is dismissed. needless to mention that it shall be open for the petitioner to file an election petition if need arises after the election result is declared. All questions are left open to be agitated in the election petition.
